

SET TO REVOLT

A large chessboard with many pieces. One piece, a king, is engulfed in bright orange and yellow flames. The rest of the pieces are dark and metallic, set against a black and white checkered board.

Set to Revolt play a powerful, dynamic and versatile form of Heavy Rock. Uptempo riffs with powerful vocals follow passionate radio hooks. In their music the band from Stuttgart describes the inner restlessness, the need for change and the dissatisfaction in everybody, that's only waiting to be released. Topics like life and death, love and hate and political discussions have a great impact on their lyrics and music.

ALBUMS

Choose life. Choose evolution. Choose to live. If you want to change something begin with yourself, start the revolution in your head, learn, evolve, build your own opinions. Because our life is ruled by two native instincts: love and hate, divided by the same constant: time. Most societies are still ruled by fear and lies; with people who are too blind to see that they are not free, because freedom was and still remains a luxury most people can't afford. We are told what to think, what to wear, what to eat, what to read, what to watch, what to believe and even what to dream of. And still, on the other hand we find true visionary people who believe in evolution, future and tolerance. People who fight with passion for their views of a greater future.

"R.Evolution Now!" tells you more about these two sides of life. Out of chaos develops a new order, no evolution without revolution. So are you ready to start?
